

SIZE INFORMATION OVERVIEW

It is a good idea to try on clothes for size when shopping in the USA. Many manufacturers and brands differ in sizes from one store to the next. You could be a size 12 in one store and a size 8 in another. The best way to know your size is to have exact measurements.

- GIRLS SIZES are usually for pre teens (usually size 7-16) and tend to be smaller than Junior sizes.
- JUNIOR SIZES are usually shown in odd numbers. 1,3,5,7,9,11, and 13. Junior clothing is for younger adults and teens and clothing tends to be slimmer in the hips and bust than misses sizes.
- MISSES SIZES are adult sizes for women and are usually shown in even numbers. E.g. 8,10,12 etc. (see chart below).
- PLUS SIZES are for larger women and the size usually has a W after the size. They start from a size 14W upwards. E.g. 18W, 20W etc.
- MEN'S SHIRTS and TROUSERS are usually the same size in the USA as to Ireland as the size is the actual dimensions in inches.
- Many SHOE SHOPS will sell shoe sizes in normal or Wide width. E.g. Size 6 or Size 6W.

Some clothing may show the sizes Small, Medium, Large etc. This is very common in T-shirts. Commonly the medium size in the USA is very similar to the large size in Ireland especially for men, however try on the merchandise before purchasing.
